Lyutsia Ibragimova violin

Lyutsia Ibragimova began her studies in Moscow Conservatoire in 1972 and completed a postgraduate course with the distinguished professor Igor Bezrodny.

From 1977-1991 she played with various Russian Chamber Orchestras and groups as a sectional leader and soloist including Ricercar, Moscow Instrumental Capella and Moscow Academy of Ancient Music, where she collaborated with such as Sviatoslav Richter, Leonid Kogan, Gideon Kremer, Oleg Kagan, Natalia Gutman, Alexei Liubimov, Tatiana Grindenko and many others. In 1991 Lyutsia started her teaching career both privately and as a guest teacher of the Gnessin Music Specialist School. In 1996 Lyutsia moved to England, where she now teaches at the Yehudi Menuhin School and the Royal College of Music.

Svitlana Kosenko piano

Svitlana Kosenko was born in Ukraine and studied first in Kharkiv Special Music School with professor Svitlana Zaharova. After graduating with a Bachelor and a Masters degree from Kharkiv University of Arts, where she studied with professor Natalya Melnikova, Svitlana returned to work as a principal piano teacher at her alma mater Kharkiv Special Music School. Svitlana is a laureate of many international competitions. In 1999, she won Second Prize in the International Competition of French-Polish Music in Paris. 2001 saw Svitlana take first prize in the Smetana International Competition and was awarded a Special Prize for her performance at the Enescu Competition. In 2012, she won Best Pianist at the Joseph Suder Lieder Competition. In 2014, she completed her studies at Saar University of Music, Germany, with a Masters degree in Chamber Music under professor Tatevik Mokatsian. From 2014-2022 she was working as Official Staff Pianist at The Yehudi Menuhin School. In 2022 started to work at RCM as accompanist of string department.
